If we had the vision of an eagle, we could read the front of this brochure from a mile away.

As parents, we long for our children to soar, like eagles, to great heights of success. That success begins in the early developmental years.

At Eagle Heights Christian Academy, we give you child the vision to succeed. With limited class sizes and teachers who love what they do, you will find an environment where your child will learn all of the academic, social, and spiritual skills necessary to succeed in life and rise above the challenges of our culture.

With a convenient location and a reasonable price, we provide a Christian education that is attainable for your child.

For a new perspective on education, come to Eagle Heights.
